FEATURED SPEAKERS:

Scott Klusendorf is President of Life Training Institute and the author of The Case for Life: Equipping Christians to Engage the Culture. Scott has taught pro-life apologetics at the graduate level at Biola University and Trinity Law School, and lectured at over 80 colleges and universities including Stanford, Berkeley, UCLA, USC, Johns Hopkins, MIT, and the U.S. Air Force Academy — to name a few.

Scott's debate opponents have included Nadine Strossen (former President of the ACLU), attorney Edward Tabash (of the Council for Secular Humanism), attorney Kathryn Kolbert (who argued for abortion rights at the Supreme Court), and Katherine Kneer (President of Planned Parenthood California).

At the practical level, Scott helps pregnancy centers raise money to assist women facing unplanned pregnancies. The money raised helps women with shelter, baby clothes, parenting classes, and medical care.

Scott is a graduate of UCLA and holds a Master's degree in Christian Apologetics from Biola University. He and his wife Stephanie have been married since 1985 and they have 4 children.

Dr. John Diggs has practiced medicine for over 35 years, serving the Palmer/Monson/Wilbraham area since 2005.

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Dr. Diggs attended Haverford College before graduating from medical school in Buffalo, NY. After several years in California, he completed his Internal Medicine training at Baystate Hospital in Springfield, MA. He is a diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine.

In his new office in Wilbraham, he is committed to offering patients an unparalleled quality of care.

Outside of medicine, Dr. Diggs enjoys cycling, and has competed on the national level in volleyball. Additionally, he is a motivational speaker and enjoys training physician's assistants.

Dr. Diggs lives in Belchertown with his wife, who is a clinical psychologist. Together they are the parents of three musical daughters who are grown and live across Massachusetts.

Scott Phelps is dedicated to restoring a culture of marriage and family by helping today's teens understand that sexual activity and childbearing is best reserved for marriage. He conducts training seminars nationally to help parents and teachers effectively communicate the benefits of abstinence and marriage to youth and how the "success sequence" provides a clear pathway forward in life. His training seminars have equipped over 5,000 educators, and his Success Sequence workbooks have reached over 2 million teens.

Scott is the author of the Success Sequence workbooks for youth which are widely used around the country: Game Plan, Quest, Aspire, Navigator, and Excel. Scott holds a bachelor's degree from San Francisco State University and a master's degree from Trinity International Divinity School in Deerfield, IL.

Scott Phelps serves as Executive Director of the Abstinence & Marriage Education Partnership, and President of the Abstinence & Marriage Education Resources near Chicago, IL. He is a co-founder and former chairman of the National Abstinence Education Association in Washington D.C. (now Ascend).

Abstinence & Marriage Education Partnership exists to ensure that every teenager in the country has the opportunity to hear a clearly reasoned, positive presentation on the benefits of abstinence until marriage and instruction on preparing for a healthy future marriage.
