A Connecticut native, he now lives in Charlottesville, Virginia with his wife and family.

SCOTT PHELPS

Scott Phelps has worked with youth in San Francisco and Chicago and each year speaks to thousands of teens around the country on the benefits of abstinence until marriage. He provides training seminars nationally to help educators and parents effectively communicate the message of abstinence to teens. His career is dedicated to helping today's teens resist negative pressures and make good decisions for their lives.

Scott's presentation entitled "Future Freedom" is a one hour assembly presentation for grades 8-12 which provides students with a clear understanding of the benefits of saving sex for marriage through vivid word pictures, real life stories, and on stage student involvement.

Scott and his wife Carrie have four children and reside near Chicago. Scott holds a bachelor's degree from San Francisco State University and a Master's degree from Trinity International University in Deerfield, Illinois.

Scott is the author of Aspire and Excel, and the co-author of A.C. Green's Game Plan and Navigator published by Project Reality. Scott is the founder and executive director of the National Marriage Campaign.
